Surprise! Surprise! Oops!

LAST WEEK Simon Fine was away on business. While he was away, his wife, Judith, organized a surprise party for his fortieth birthday. She invited all Simon's family and friends. They arrived at six o'clock and they waited for Simon.

*There were voices in the flat.
But who was it?*

When Simon arrived home, he walked upstairs to the flat. Then he stopped because there were voices in the flat. But who was it? He listened. It wasn't Judith because she was on holiday in Scotland. Were there burglars in the flat?

Simon rushed downstairs and he phoned the police. Five minutes later two police officers arrived in a police car. They walked upstairs. Simon opened the door and they rushed into the flat. Then all his family and friends shouted: 'Happy Birthday! Surprise! Surprise!'

'It was very embarrassing. But the police officers laughed about it,' said Simon.

'I organized the party while Simon was away. I wasn't really on holiday. It was certainly a big surprise, when he arrived with two police officers,' said Judith.

b 73.3 Listen and check.

7a Your life Write six sentences about your day yesterday.1 I got up at 7.30.

b Tell a partner.

1 74.1 Read and listen.

Last Wednesday

Jordan went to the football match.

He didn't go to the restaurant with Lucy.

Yesterday at The Coffee Shop

Jordan talked to Lucy.

Lucy didn't talk to Jordan.

2 Study the rules.

Past simple: negative statements

1 The past simple negative is the same for:

- regular and irregular verbs.
- all subjects.

2 To make negative statements in the past simple we use:
subject + didn't + verb

I didn't go to the restaurant.
She didn't talk to Jordan.

3 didn't = did not

4 Note: We use the infinitive NOT the past simple

He didn't go ...
NOT He didn't went ...

3 Make the sentences negative.

1 Sarah didn't go to the university yesterday.

1 Sarah went to the university yesterday.

2 She had an exam.

3 Ryan and Cindy went out last night.

4 Sarah saw Peter last Sunday.

5 Jordan and Ryan played football yesterday.

6 Cindy got up late today.

7 Jordan bought a new TV for his flat.

8 Lucy drove to work today.

4 74.2 Drill. Listen. Say the negative.

1 We took the tram.

We didn't take the tram.

5 Your life What did you do yesterday?
Write a sentence for each verb.

1 I got up late yesterday.

OR I didn't get up late yesterday.

1 get up late

5 play tennis

2 send a text

6 speak English

3 go shopping

7 use the Internet

4 buy a newspaper

8 take the train

Pronunciation

Sentence stress

In a sentence not all of the syllables are stressed.

1 74.3 Listen.

1 I didn't go to work.

2 He bought a new mobile.

2 74.4 Listen and repeat the sentences.
Try to copy the stress.

1 I didn't go to work.

2 He bought a new mobile.

3 She had lunch with Jim.

4 We went to the shops.

5 They waited for the bus.

6 I phoned the police.

Now I can ...

talk about what I didn't do in the past.

1 Read the information about Hans.

MY LIFE

- 1 Hans was born in Germany. His family lived in a small town near Frankfurt.
- 2 When he was five, they left Germany and they moved to Hong Kong. His father worked for a computer company there.
- 3 Hans went to school in Hong Kong. He liked school.
- 4 He liked sport. He played football and rugby for the school teams.
- 5 Hans left school when he was eighteen. He went to Vancouver in Canada.
- 6 He studied there at the University of British Columbia. He did Japanese and Russian.
- 7 After that he stayed in Vancouver and he got a job with a radio station. He was a reporter.
- 8 He met his wife, Meena, in hospital. He had a motorbike and one day he had an accident. Meena was a nurse at the hospital.
- 9 They got married two years later.
- 10 Their first child - a son - was born in January this year.

2a 75.1 Some of the facts in the text are wrong. Listen to Hans talking about his life. Underline the incorrect information.

b Listen again. Correct the text in exercise 1.

1 I was born in Germany.
We lived in a village near Frankfurt.

c Say what is wrong and give the correct form.

They didn't live in a small town; they lived in a village.

3a Your life Write five sentences about your life. Follow the pattern.

I was born in ...

We lived in (name of the street) ...

I went to (name of the school) ...

I liked / didn't like ...

I left school when I was ...

I got a job in / with OR I went to ...
(name of university)

Peter Oh, dear. And Cindy's still angry with Ryan, too.

Jordan Yes, because you told Cindy.

Peter Hey, it wasn't my fault.

Jordan Yes, you're right. It was Ryan's fault.

Peter Come on, Jordan. You went to the match, too.

Jordan Yes, but I tried to phone Lucy. And I sent a text.

Peter But her phone wasn't working.

Jordan Yes, but I didn't know that. So why is she angry?

Peter Look. Lucy wanted to go to the rock concert with her friends, but she didn't go, because she had a date with you. But you ...

Jordan I went to the football match. Yes, Lucy was right: I am an idiot.

Peter Maybe. Anyway, I must go.

Jordan Me, too. I've got an audition for a play this afternoon.

Peter Hi, Sarah.

Sarah Oh, hello, Peter. Hi, Jordan.

Cindy Yes, I did. I saw him at the station last night.
Peter Oh, did he go to his audition?
Cindy Yes, he did.
Peter Did he get the part?
Cindy No, he didn't.
Peter Oh, dear.

b Practise the conversation with a partner.

2 Study the rules.

Past simple: questions and short answers

1 To make questions in the past simple we use:

did + subject + verb

Did you see Jordan? Yes, I did.
 No, I didn't.

Did he get the part? Yes, he did.
 No, he didn't.

2 We use the infinitive and not the past simple after did.

Did he go to the audition?

NOT Did he went to the audition?

3 We make questions in the same way with both regular and irregular verbs.

Did you clean the car? (regular)

Did you do the washing? (irregular)

3a Complete the conversations. Choose the correct verb form.

I was born in South America – in Argentina. I didn't go to school there, because we moved to England when I was four years old. My father worked for a newspaper and he got a job in London. I didn't speak English when I arrived. I only spoke Spanish, but I learnt English when I started school. My parents went back to Argentina when I was eighteen, but I stayed in England and I went to university there. I live in Spain now. After university I got a job with a mobile phone company here, because I speak Spanish. I met my husband here. We got married last year.

- Where was the woman born?
- How old was she when they came to England?
- What did her father do?
- What language did she speak when she arrived?
- Did her parents stay in England?
- Where did she go to university?
- What did she do after university?
- When did she get married?
