

Write the correct letter, a, b, or c.

- 1 You (a should b might c shouldn't) eat less if you want to lose weight. ☐
- 2 'I work in a hospital.' '(a So am I b So I do c So do I).' ☐
- 3 'What (a does b has c is) James like?' 'Very friendly.' ☐
- 4 'We haven't been to Berlin yet.' 'Oh, (a have we b we have c we've).' ☐
- 5 I can't find anything in this room. You're so (a untidy b disloyal c kind). ☐
- 6 'It won't snow.' = It's (a definite b possible c probable) that there will be no snow. ☐
- 7 Why do you have to talk so (a much loud b loudly c loud)? ☐
- 8 'We were at home all weekend.' '(a Nor were we b So we were c So were we).' ☐
- 9 I usually work (a well b good c easy) in the morning. ☐
- 10 Sam's very (a sensitive b shy c sensible). He always makes the right choice. ☐
- 11 'I can't drive.' '(a Neither I can b Neither can I c So can I).' ☐
- 12 Do you get (a impatiently b impatient c patient) if people are late? ☐
- 13 You can't depend on Jane. She's very (a reliable b polite c unreliable). ☐
- 14 I (a will b should c might) change my job next year. It's possible. ☐
- 15 Stefan reacted (a badly b quiet c bad) to the news. ☐
- 16 'I studied all last weekend.' 'So (a was b did c have) I.' ☐
- 17 Do you like (a ambitious b ambition c ambitiously) people? ☐
- 18 We (a will b should c won't) miss our plane. We've got lots of time. ☐
- 19 The opposite of 'miserable' is (a 'cheerful' b 'sociable' c 'insensitive'). ☐
- 20 You (a should b shouldn't c might) leave valuable things in the car. ☐

☒ MARK OUT OF 20