Language Practice

The Language Practice section includes activities that provide consolidation of the language presented in the Coursebook. It includes practice of all language skills: grammar, vocabulary, pronunciation, reading, listening and writing.

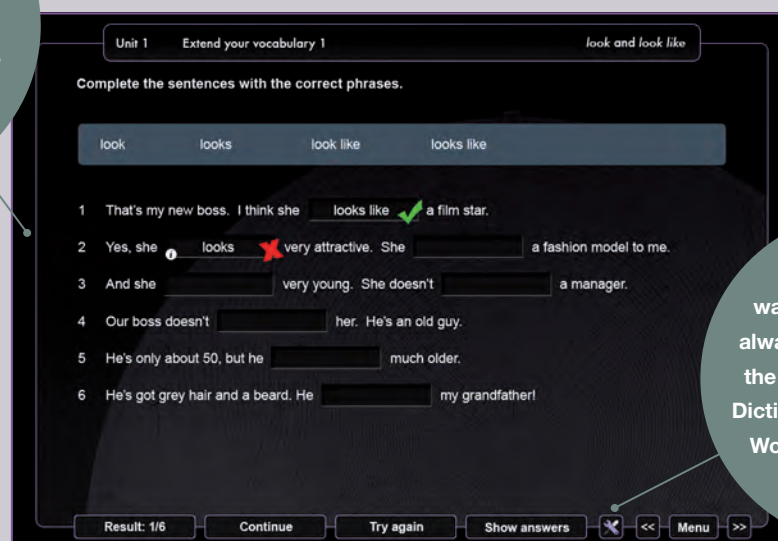

One of the advantages of an eWorkbook is that you can do the exercises as many times as you want. Most of the exercises are interactive. Reading and Writing activities are printable PDFs.

You can navigate the material by unit or by language skill. If you choose to work by unit, you will be taken to a list of all the activities related to that particular unit.

If you choose to work by skill, you will be taken to a list of all the different activities related to that particular skill.

When you choose an activity practising grammar, vocabulary, listening or pronunciation you will be taken to a screen like this one.

Whichever way you work you will always be able to access the following resources: Dictionary, Grammar Help, Word Lists and Writing Tips.

You will be able to check your answers, show them etc. If an audio file is needed, you will be able to click on the relevant icon and play it.

To do a Reading or Writing activity you will need the free program Acrobat Reader.

Reading texts relate to the topic of the Coursebook unit and are information-rich. As well as comprehension questions there are exercises relating to language content (vocabulary/grammar). There is one reading text for each unit. You can also open the answer key as a separate document.

If you prefer to work away from the computer, this gives you exactly the same as what you would expect in a printed workbook with the added advantage that you only print the pages that you need.

Paragraph 2 b places to visit
Paragraph 3 c getting around
Paragraph 4 d eating out

2 Find these words and phrases in the text.

5 How much are two tickets?
6 Are restaurants in Moscow expensive?
7 Does the writer like hushka?
8 What can you do in Old Arbat Street?

Moscow - a wonderful city

There are lots of interesting places in Moscow. The first place is Red Square, in the centre of the city. Here you can see St Basil's Cathedral and the Lenin Mausoleum. Then there's Gorky Park - lots of the local people go there in the evening, try to watch a show at the world-famous Bolshoi Theatre.

It's a good idea to use the metro, but in the centre you can go on foot. It's not difficult to find your way and it's open from five thirty in the morning until 1.00am. Tickets are about 25 roubles.

There are lots of different restaurants, but sometimes they are expensive. Try hushka, a type of pancake with different fillings - they're delicious.

Do you want to buy some souvenirs to take home? One place to go is Old Arbat Street - there are lots of souvenirs, but they're expensive. There are also big modern malls and you can go to the famous GUM store, near Red Square, with its amazing architecture. Have a good trip!

Listen

This section offers access to all the Listening material in the eWorkbook. It includes the following:

- Access to the listening activities in the Language Practice section
- Audio material designed to be used 'on the move'

When you select Language Practice you will be taken to the Listening activities in the Language Practice section.

There are three types of audio material.

Useful Phrases features mini-dialogues that contain the 'Useful phrases' in the Coursebook (e.g. 'agreeing and disagreeing').

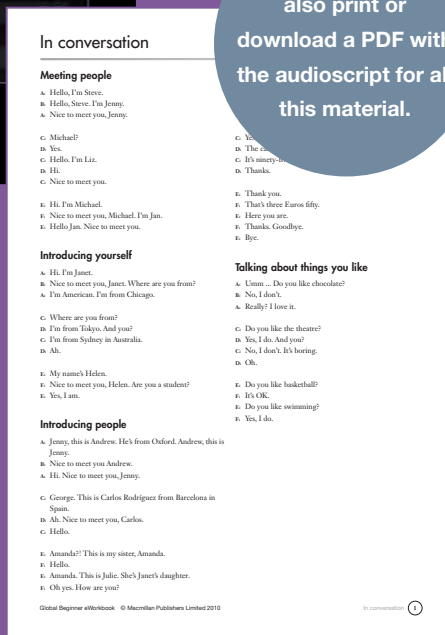

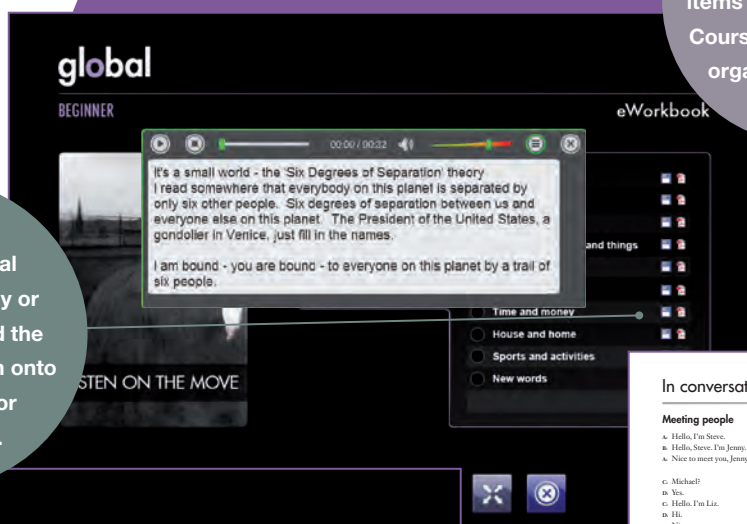

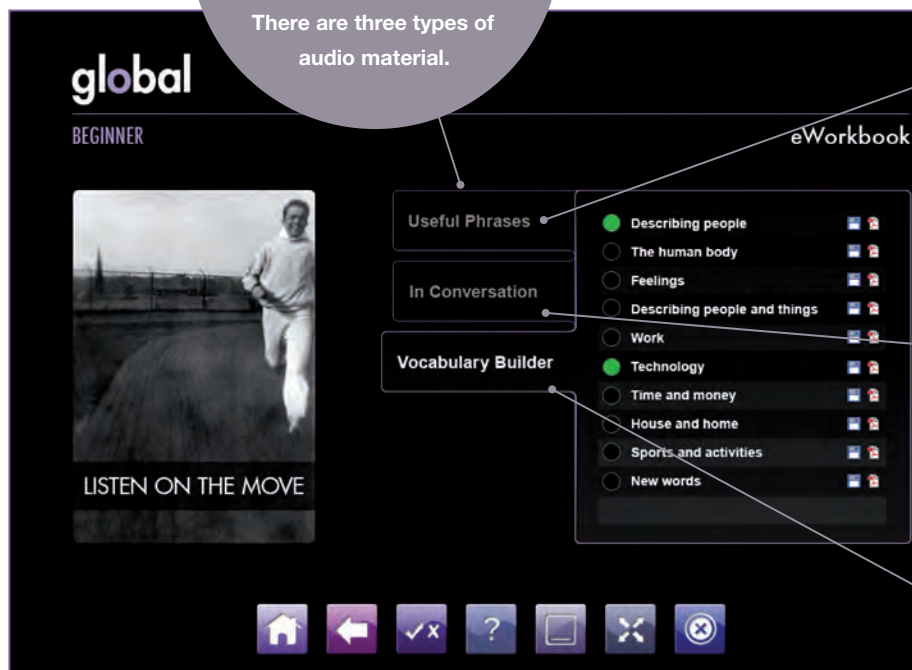

In Conversation contains situational dialogues (e.g. at a restaurant, taking a taxi). The situations relate to the situations in the 'Function Globally' pages in the Coursebook.

Vocabulary Builder contains lists of vocabulary items introduced in the Coursebook which are organised by topic.

You can play this material by clicking on play or you can download the files and copy them onto an mp3 player or other devices.

You can also print or download a PDF with the audioscript for all this material.

As its name indicates, this is ideal for learning on the move.

Watch

When you select Watch in the main menu you are taken to a screen where all the video clips in the eWorkbook are listed.

You can either watch the videos on your computer or download the files. When you watch the videos on your computer you can select to watch them with or without subtitles.

When you click on 'download' you can copy the files to a selected location. You can download the files in a number of formats, for example for iPod, iTouch, iPhone or other common mobile phones.

You can also download the scripts as a PDF.
